Today, we look back in time to the first few weeks after the death and resurrection of Our Lord and we begin to see a growing realisation from the followers of Jesus of the real meaning of his teaching. We see this very clearly in their new understanding of forgiveness and reconciliation. Looking at the actions of the early church can teach us so much about our own understanding of the message of Christ and remind us again of how the mercy of God affects our lives today.

The passage from Acts is a real attempt by the Apostles to reach out to the people of Jerusalem, not in condemnation, but in a spirit of reconciliation. The people may have been ashamed by the events surrounding the Passover and the death of Jesus; now the apostles are appealing to them to reconsider their actions and turn again to God. This is the Christian way; to condemn the sin, but love the sinner. There are many dreadful acts of violence in our world today against Christian churches. If we are to act in the spirit of Jesus, then our response must be to forgive these acts and try to rebuild the relationships that has been broken.

Saint John is writing to the infant church and advising them on their response to personal sin. This letter is a simple explanation of the Sacrament of Penance. It stresses the need to stop the actions which are causing sin, it urges us to turn to God in our sorrow for our actions and it reminds us that after forgiveness comes a firm purpose of amendment when we strive to keep God's commandments and sin no more.

The Gospel story follows the passage on the Road to Emmaus and the scene that the two disciples find when they return to Jerusalem. The disciples are talking about Jesus when he appears in their midst. This is a reminder to us of the truth that when two or three are gathered in his name Jesus is there with them. Jesus then teaches them again about forgiveness and reconciliation. He is not afraid to show his wounds, he reminds us that he, too, knows what it is like to suffer in an unjust world. He reminds them of the power of scripture, and he opens their minds, and ours, to understand the Word of God.

LITTLE SISTERS OF THE POOR

St Joseph's Home (Little Sisters of the Poor) urgently need to replace some of the kitchenettes and furnishings. Specialist flooring on the main corridors of the care units requires essential upgrades to ensure the safety, comfort, and well-being of the residents and to maintain required standards of infection control. The flooring not only enhances the homeliness and comfort of St Joseph's Home but also plays a crucial role in maintaining the safety of the residents by providing a hygienic and comfortable surface, thus reducing the risk of trips and falls.

A collection for St Joseph's Home will be taken at all Masses next weekend, 20/21 April. If you wish to make a private contribute, you can do so by sending cheques made payable to 'Little Sisters of the Poor' to St Joseph's Home, Westmorland Road, Newcastle upon Tyne, NE4 7QA. Alternatively, secure online donations can be made by visiting the website at www.littlesistersofthepoor.co.uk/donate-here/.

The Little Sisters of the Poor are deeply grateful for your continued support and prayers. Your generosity plays a significant role in enabling them to fulfil their mission of providing safe, affordable, and quality care to vulnerable older people in need. Please know that your contribution, no matter the size, will make a difference in the lives of the residents.

THE YEAR OF PRAYER 2024 & THE JUBILEE YEAR 2025

Pope Francis has called a Jubilee Year for 2025, with the theme 'Pilgrims of Hope'. In preparation for the Jubilee Year, the Holy Father has also called for 2024 to be designated a Year of Prayer. Throughout this year, David Frank offers a short reflection and prayer based on the Sunday Gospel.

The promise of Easter is that the future is full of hope. We are children of the promise, and we believe that the Spirit is alive and working in our churches. We live in a time of great change. Our strength needs to be based in our communities, our leaders, and how we share the love of Christ with those we meet.

A Prayer based on "Why are you so agitated, and why are doubts rising in your hearts." (Luke 24:38)

Lord,

There are times when doubt clouds my mind. Sometimes the troubles of this world seem to overwhelm me and trying to see your presence in the pain and suffering is so difficult. But, somehow, I cling on to belief in you and, slowly my vision becomes clearer and I see your hand behind the compassion and forgiveness shown by ordinary men and women in the face of great adversity and I glimpse you in their great acts of love. Forgive me my agitation and teach me that forgiveness is the only way to build a world filled with your peace.

Amen
